Landcare Australia Announces Board Changes

14 July 2017: Chairman of Landcare Australia Limited, Doug Humann, has today announced the resignations of Directors, Adele Beachley and Natalie Collard.

Mr Humann thanked Ms Beachley and Ms Collard.

“On behalf of the Board of Directors of Landcare Australia, I would like to thank Adele and Natalie for their valued contributions during their tenure as Board Directors. I wish them both well in their future endeavours.”

Ms Beachley joined the Landcare Australia Board in June 2015, providing support and guiding the use of best practice to drive corporate partnership growth and to deliver business intelligence, reporting and analysis. Adele was appointed to the Board as a recognised leader in Australia and overseas, at the forefront of technology, mobility, sales and marketing.

Ms Collard was also appointed in June 2015, joining the Board for her strong belief in the importance of playing a role to secure Australia’s environmental future, and for her belief in the intrinsic importance of volunteerism in Australian society. Natalie brought to the Board connections in the agricultural space, exposure to innovation best practice and contemporary not for profit senior leadership for which she is widely recognised.

About Landcare Australia

Landcare Australia is a not-for-profit organisation with a vision of all Australians actively caring for the land and water that sustain us. For over 25 years, Landcare Australia has worked collaboratively with federal, state and local governments, corporate partners and sponsors, and individuals, to build capacity for the Landcare community to better manage Australia’s crucial land and water assets. Landcare Australia delivers hundreds of projects annually through the volunteer efforts of local community groups, Indigenous groups, and the more than 5,400 Landcare and Coastcare groups that make up the Landcare movement.
