

FAQ

1. The below questions can also help guide your discussion with a project developer and assist in selecting the right fit for you.
2. Who owns your organisation?
3. Do you operate a fee for service model, or would you prefer a split of the ACCUs?
4. How many successful projects have you implemented, and can you give me details of these?
5. Have any projects you've developed issued ACCUs or are expected to issue ACCUs shortly?
6. How many years revegetation/Environmental Planting experience does your organisation have?
7. Where do you source your funding from?
8. How do you determine the split of ACCUs produced between us?
9. Do you hold an Australian Financial Services Licence?
10. Can you help me sell my share of the ACCUs if I do not require them for insetting purposes?
11. Do you prefer to run 25 or 100-year permanence projects?
12. What expenses and resources will I be required to contribute?
13. What is your planning, preparation and management process?
14. What challenges do you see to a successful project in this region?
15. What is the minimum scale (ha's) project you develop?
16. Do you have the names of other landholders I can reach out to as a reference?
17. Do you operate as a for-profit or not-for-profit entity?
18. What happens in the event of failure or natural disaster?
19. What happens if you become insolvent?
20. Can you assist me with my on-farm emissions baseline?

There are a range of additional resources online to help you ask the right questions, including Agriculture Victoria's guide Selling Carbon from Trees and Soils and the Australian Farm Institute's Carbon Opportunity Decision Support Tool.

For more information visit: <https://landcareaustralia.org.au/what-we-do/landcare-carbonsmart/>